

City of Tulsa

Mayor
Bill LaFortune

PROCLAMATION

*WHEREAS, the adoption of children has played an important part in the history of the city of Tulsa and its families; and,
WHEREAS, many Tulsa citizens were adopted as children through public and private agencies; and,
WHEREAS, accepted adoption policy recognizes as natural the desire for adoptee's to know of their origin and promotes an adult adoptee's right to access their birth and adoption histories; and,
WHEREAS, international, national and local organizations, continually strive to raise the ethics, education and social service provisions in adoption and post-adoption cases; and,
WHEREAS, the International Soundex Reunion Registry (ISRR) is dedicated to reuniting adult family members, separated by adoption, divorce or other family dislocation, in hopes of locating biological relatives and learning about their personal histories; and,
WHEREAS, ISRR celebrates the diligence of the adoption industry through "RegDay,"*

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill LaFortune, Mayor of the City of Tulsa, do hereby proclaim Saturday, October 2, 2004, as

"RegDay"

in the City of Tulsa

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Tulsa to be affixed on the twenty-sixth day of August, Two Thousand Four.
